Section 2:

Security

Frequently asked questions

Q. How secure is it?

A. As you would expect, cyber security is of the utmost importance to us and our carefully selected technology partners. All data within the Ernest Grant client portal is fully encrypted and accessible via multi-factor authentication, together with other security measures to ensure your data is protected at all times.

Q. Here's the technical bit...

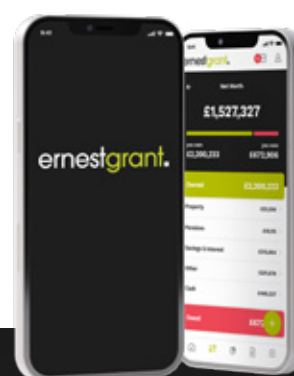

A. All information is securely sent and received encrypted, which means that information cannot be read by anyone listening between your computer and the Ernest Grant client portal service. Even when we process any of your data internally, we still encrypt it.

Our technology partner moneyinfo protects its infrastructure in several ways using advanced technologies and also using a Security Operations Centre (SOC), which monitors activity in our environments 24/7/365. This means if something looks suspicious, moneyInfo's SOC will inform us immediately. In addition the facility is ISO27001 certified and protected by the very best in physical security, electronic security and internal security policies to ensure that your details remain totally secure.

The infrastructure is designed in such a way to allow for high availability; if there is a blip and something goes wrong in the facilities, a spare section of the environment automatically picks it up, which ensures that you can still access your information seamlessly.

Q. How private is my data?

A. Your privacy and trust are our highest priority and so we put extensive safeguards in place to protect your identity, privacy and financial data at all times. When you add your own information on to the Ernest Grant client portal you can decide who it is shared with using the privacy controls.

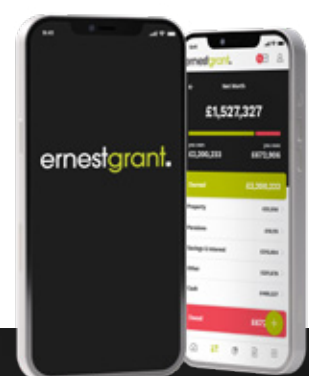

Q. Is my data protected under the Data Protection act?

- A. Ernest Grant strictly adheres to the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act (DPA 2018), so you can be assured that any data, documents or messages are kept safe and secure with rigid data protection principles in mind. We do not share any data or information with third parties, unless given explicit consent by you.

Q. What happens to my data if I no longer use the Ernest Grant client portal?

- A. If you decide to no longer be a client of Ernest Grant then your Ernest Grant client portal access will be revoked. You will have an opportunity to download your data in line with the regulatory requirements. All data will be completely deleted from the servers after 30 days from the deletion of your account.
